Monthly Update

February 2010

Congratulations EMOLTB!

EMOLTB was honoured to receive an award from the City of London as “London’s Featured Community Organization” at a city council meeting on January 18th, 2010. The award is presented each month to an organization that “strives to make London a caring and compassionate city through dedicated and valuable contributions to the community”. Pictured at left are Fred Galloway, United Way Selection Committee, Deb Mountenay, Executive Director EMOLTB, Brenda Dottermann, Business Co-Chair EMOLTB, Mayor Anne Marie DiCicco-Best, Joel VanBynen, Labour Co-Chair EMOLTB.

The Agenda With Steve Paikin

EMOLTB co-op student Chantelle Diachina was a guest panelist on the live broadcast of The Agenda with Steve Paikin on February 1st, along with LEDC President Peter White, UWO President Amit Chakma, LFP Editor in Chief Paul Berton and UWO PhD candidate Jeffrey Preston. The panel discussed how to keep the 20-something post-secondary graduates in London. Chantelle, who is studying Public Relations and Corporate Communications at Fanshawe College, was chosen to participate in the TVO program after attending the AgendaCamp on January 31st at UWO, where a series of focus groups discussed issues that were relevant to the London community and the ways in which the city plans to reinvent itself this millennium.
