Congratulations to our Francophone director, Diane Dubois on being appointed by Collège Boréal as Associate Vice-President Academic for Central and Southwestern Ontario. Diane has worked tirelessly for nearly thirty years to have the rights of the francophone community recognized in the Southwestern region of the province. By appointing Mme Dubois, Collège Boréal is fully committed to improving the quality of the services provided to the francophone community and to developing a comprehensive array of programs best suited to the needs of Central and Southwestern Ontario.

SLOME 2009

Wow...4,288 youth, 345 teachers and helpers, over 70 exhibits and 25 volunteers helped to ensure another successful year for the 10th annual, hands-on career exploration day. A big thank you to all who volunteered their time and also to SLOME Coordinator Kathryn Tull for organizing this educational, inspiring day! See the pictures and other information by visiting www.slome.org

Second Career Program Information

Are you looking for information on the Second Career Program?
